FRANKFORT, JUNE 20, 1885.

The Hornet and Bluewing are carrying on a rate war just now. They are carrying passengers from this city to Louisville for one dollar, including meals and lodging, and freight on a hoghead of tobacco has been put down to the same price for the same distance.

The ordinance against allowing hogs to run at large on the streets, which was repealed several years ago, has never been re-enacted, and those who are shouting about enforcing the hog law will have to secure the passage of one by the Council if they want the officers to come to their relief. In the meantime they can sharpen up all the old scythe blades they can find and fasten them on the bottom of their gates.

The probabilities are that the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue for this district will be removed to this city from Lexington as soon as the Government Building is completed. An officer of the Treasury department was in the city on Wednesday and Collector Robinson was telephoned for to meet him here and select the furniture for the three rooms allotted to him in the building.

Rosa Triplett, colored, broke into the residence of Mr. John T. Waters Friday afternoon of last week, during the absence of his family, and stole $100 in gold from a trunk, the key of which she had in her possession. She had been employed as cook for the family for a year or more and had only recently been discharged. She eluded the officers until Thursday afternoon, when she was arrested, and $73 of the money found in her possession.

The closing exercises of Greenwood Female Seminary in this city took place on Wednesday, without any public demonstrations. Recitations, readings, dialogues and calisthenics constituted the programme. Miss Mattie E. Williamson was the only graduate.

Mrs. Runyan will continue to give lessons in drawing and painting on Mondays and Thursdays at 9 o'clock a. m.

Mr. Grant Green, jr., son of Hon. Grant Green, of this city, and Miss Joe Gray, step-daughter of Col. John F. Davis, Commissioner of Agriculture, were married Thursday morning in Jeffersonville, Indiana. Mr. Green who has been engaged in the lumber business at Olive Springs, Tennessee, for several months, came to Louisville on Wednesday, where he was met by Miss Gray, who has been visiting friends in Shelbyville for a week or two, and together with several friends, went to Jeffersonville the next morning and had the marital knot tied by a Methodist minister. They left Thursday evening for the home of the groom in Tennessee.

Mrs. Joe Swigert was elected President of the Woman's Missionary Society of Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Church, at Lexington, last Saturday.

Rev. Dr. Morris Evans, who has been President of the Millersburg Female College for the past year, has accepted the presidency of the College at Lancaster. He will be succeeded at Millersburg by Rev. C. Pope, of Georgia.

The County Court opened the bids for furnishing a new bell for the Court House on Saturday and awarded the contract to Messrs. Ferguson & Meek, they agreeing to furnish a new bell for the old one and $75. The old bell was taken down Monday and the new one will be put up in a few days.

A man by the name of Newt. Rowe, a carpenter living at Sadieville, Scott county, stole a horse from a man by the name of Irvin Zeising, of that village, on Thursday night of last week, rode it to this city and sold it to Messrs. Church Bros. for $75. He is now in jail in Georgetown awaiting the September Court.

The Frankfort Base Ball Club was reorganized on Monday night as an amateur club and will play during the balance of the season. A good nine has been secured and a game will be played this evening at Capital Park with the Riversides. Season tickets sold by the managers of the old club will admit the holders to all games played under the new organization.

Dr. E. B. Dodge, the "Shamrock Oil" man who has paid several visits to this city with his quartette of colored singers, was rotten egged at Hopkinsville on Saturday, while giving one of his open air concerts, for using rough language to some of the best citizens of the place, who he thought were talking too loud near his stand.

Deputy U. S. Marshal, Con. McCarty, arrested a colored woman by the name of Patty Moore Monday morning on the charge of taking from the Post Office a letter intended for Miss Pattie Moore, of Winchester, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. F. Exum, in this city, and embezzling a small amount of money it contained. She was discharged, as she could not be identified as the party who received the letter from the clerk in the post office.

ALL PERSONS INTENDING TO ME FOR ACCOUNTS of the year 1884 will please call and settle before the 1st of July and save themselves cost and trouble. TO WATER CONSUMERS.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 19th, 1885. THE NEW WATER SERVICE PIPES NOW being laid in this city, are in many cases placed at a depth under the surface of sidewalks or ground, both in the streets and private premises, not greater than eighteen (18) inches. Long experience in this latitude has established the fact that service water pipes laid at a depth of less than three (3) feet under ground are not safe against frost. When laid at a shallower depth they frequently freeze, burst, and interrupt the continuity of the water supply, and necessitate expenses for repairs tenfold greater than the first cost of placing the pipe at the proper depth. For this reason, acting in the interest of both the water consumers, and the water department, notice is hereby given that water will not be turned on services laid at a shallower depth than three feet under ground. The people are also cautioned against the trouble in store for them, by the acts of plumbers who locate hydrants and other fixtures for drawing water, in violation and defiance of the Water Company's Rule No. 3, on page 2 of its Rules and Regulations.
